U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 11-03) Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Acknowledgement is made of applicant's arguments. However, it should be noted that intended use of the instant application for high speed cutting does not serve to distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art satisfying the same structure. Moreover, it should be noted that the claim are not restricted to continuous rotation of the drums; only that the drums are accelerated.
